

Board Games

Buckeye Leadership Workshop 2019

Ted Zech & Skylar Sommers

In this class we will be playing as many games as we can fit into our time slot. These games will range from big box traditional board games, to quick games you can keep in your glove box to play whenever you “need” to.

The list of games we will play includes:

- Hanabi
- Great Dalmuti
- Dominion
- Blank White Cards
- Betrayal at house on the hill
- Risk 2210
- Phase 10
- Tenzi
- Roll for it
- Zombie Dice (and expansions)
- Pass the Pigs
- Hare and Tortoise
- Munchkin
- Oregon Trail
- Yikerz
- 5 Second Rule
- Fluxx
- Zombie Fluxx
- Carcassonne (and expansions)
- Ticket to Ride
- Quirkle
- Sheriff of Nottingham
- Settlers of Catan
- Superfight!
- The Resistance
- Sushi Go!
- 7 Wonders
- We Didn't Play Test This
- The Mind
- The Game
- Tsuru of the Seas
- Tsuru
- Others as time allows

These games are all easily available for purchase, and will offer many different game mechanics for the class to be exposed to; including, dice rolling, worker placement, resource management, negotiation, set building, cooperation, teambuilding, cooperation with defector, and others. Each game comes with (copy written) instructions on how to play, but for more information including game not covered during class, Ted maintains a blog reviewing and explaining board games that are worth buying along with links as to where to find them, that can be found at www.goodboardgames.blogspot.com If you ever have questions about how an individual game works, or what game would fit your individual gaming needs, feel free to leave a comment on his blog or to contact him at any time.
